IRB Approval

Under FWA #00006878, the IRB renewed approval for your activity from 1/6/2023 to 1/5/2024.

- Tracking IRB approval periods and preventing a lapse is the researcher's responsibility. However, the Zipline system sends automated courtesy reminders prior to expiration of approval. If a renewal application or study closure is not received within 90 days of expiration, HSD may administratively close the study. In some circumstances, HSD may refuse to review additional submissions from the researcher until a status report is received, lapsed IRB approval may be considered continuing non-compliance, and the study may be "terminated" by the IRB.
- This approval applies only to the activities described in your application (including any references to specific grant sections). It does not include other activities that may be described in your grant or contract.
- This approval applies to all relying sites listed in the table above.
- This approval is for the number of subjects described in your application (in total and for each group). Submit a Modification to request an increase in the number of approved subjects, if necessary. Exceeding the IRB-approved number (over-enrollment) will be considered non-compliance.
- Your study has a federal Certificate of Confidentiality (CoC). See this INFORMATION SHEET for a description of the CoC protections and responsibilities.
- If you plan to continue data collection past the expiration of the CoC, contact the Human Subjects Division prior to expiration. We will help you determine whether you need to apply for a CoC extension.

Thank you for your commitment to ethical and responsible research. We wish you great success!

Sincerely,

Jenny Maki
